

THE ENFIELD SENIOR CENTER PRESENTS....

3-DAY VERMONT

A TOUCH OF COUNTRY

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

SEPT. 11 – 13, 2017

Day 1

Depart at 8:00 AM for the village of Stowe, VT, the #1 year round resort community high in the Green Mountains of Northern Vermont. The locals call this scenic area “The Northern Kingdom” and the rest of us call it “a little piece of heaven” in New England. Lodging for 2 nights will be provided at the Commodore’s Inn of Stowe. The Inn is situated on a 3 acre lake and has an indoor pool, hot tubs, an exercise facility, a full service restaurant and sports lounge, and all the rooms have been newly refurbished. Commodores has that cozy ski lodge atmosphere that you only find in New England. A Welcome Wine & Cheese Reception and DINNER are included at Commodores Inn tonight. !

Day 2

Enjoy a hearty Vermont Country BREAKFAST before we meet “Mr. Vermont”, our guide for the day. He seems to know everything and everybody in the Green Mountain State and the “Northern Kingdom” of Vermont is his specialty. This morning we’ll begin with a guided tour of Stowe and also visit Emily’s covered bridge, the Stowe Village gift shops, sample the legendary flavors of Vermont Cabot Cheese, Ben & Jerry’s renowned ice cream and sweet apple cider at the Cold Hollow Cider Mill and cider village shops. On today’s tour you will hear the legends and lore of the Green Mountains that only a local story teller can provide. We’ll conclude this magical day with DINNER included at the world renowned Von Trapp Family Lodge where the sound of music echoes from the mountain tops.

Day 3

A big BREAKFAST BUFFET is included at Commodores followed by a visit to famous King Arthur Flour, one of the newest and already most popular stops in the Green Mountain State. This afternoon we’ll follow scenic country roads through mountain villages and past old fashioned covered bridges and stop at a Vermont gift shop or two. This is the Vermont we all came to see. Return home about 5:30 PM.
