

Afternoon Book Chat at the Senior Center

January-June 2020

All meetings are held at 2:30 PM in the Wellness Room

Wednesday, January 8th

The Death of Mrs. Westaway by Ruth Ware

After erroneously receiving a mysterious letter about a large inheritance, Hal attends the deceased's funeral and realizes that something is very, very wrong.

Wednesday, February 12th

The Boston Girl by Anita Diamant

Addie Baum was born in 1900 to immigrant parents who were unprepared for America and its effect on their children. Dreaming of going to college, Addie wants a career and to find true love. Now eighty-five, Addie tells the story of her life to her granddaughter.

Wednesday, March 11th

My Italian Bulldozer by Alexander McCall Smith

Arriving in the Italian town of Montalcino to finish an overdue cookbook, author Paul Stewart finds things quickly take a turn for the worse.

Wednesday, April 8th

The Swans of Fifth Avenue by Melanie Benjamin

A novel about New York's "Swans" (socialites) of the 1950s--and the scandalous, headline-making, and enthralling friendship between literary legend Truman Capote and peerless socialite Babe Paley

Wednesday, May 13th

The Goodbye Quilt by Susan Wiggs

Linda Davis, the owner of a shop where women gather with their quilts commemorating important events of their lives, and her daughter Molly share one last adventure together as Molly goes off to college, making special memories along the way.

Wednesday, June 10th

Island of Sea Women by Lisa See

The ostracized daughter of a Japanese collaborator and the daughter of their Korean village's head female diver share nearly a century of friendship that is tested by their island's torn position between two warring empires